Take a Bumble Brothers' Nature Walk

In The Bumble Brothers: The Not-So-Secret Clubhouse! Walter, Christopher, and Rebecca Wood explore the sights and sounds of Leafy Park as they look for the perfect place for a clubhouse. Take a "sensory" walk in a nearby park with your family.

Bring a pad and pencil and record your observations.

- What do you see? (Draw a picture.)
- What do you hear?
- What do you smell?

Letters for Lunch!

In The Bumble Brothers – Frabbit: Birth of a Superhero! Walter and Christopher are confused about the meanings of BLT and PB&J sandwiches. Later, Walter asks for a SNPMG sandwich; that's sausage, noodles, popcorn, marshmallows, and gravy.

- Using the letters of the alphabet, invent a crazy new sandwich, then draw a picture of it.
- What are your five favorite foods? Make a list, then put them in alphabetical order.

Math Time!

In The Bumble Brothers – Frabbit: Birth of a Superhero! Christopher surprises Walter by knowing that 8 baseball caps times $5 = $40.

Can you solve these multiplication problems?

- 11 baseball caps X 5 baseball caps = _____ caps
- 10 hamburgers X 9 hamburgers = _____ hamburgers
- 6 Frabbit comics X 7 Frabbit comics = _____ comics
- 8 donuts X 4 donuts = _____ donuts
- 3 turtles X 9 turtles = _____ turtles

Invent Nonsense Riddles

In The Bumble Brothers: Crazy for Comics! Christopher tries to cheer up Walter with this silly riddle:

Question: Why did the rooster go to a party?

Answer: Because he wanted to dance on the table.
(Not surprisingly, Walter doesn't think it's funny.)

- Create three ridiculous riddles and tell your friends.
- See who can create the silliest one.

Create a New Superhero...and Super Villain

In the Bumble Brothers' books, Frabbit is a superhero (½ frog and ½ rabbit) who can jump very high and hear things from far away.

His arch-enemy is a worm, Wormo, who has super-squeezing powers. Create your own brand-new superhero and super villain.

- Invent a story about them.
